Who we are:

CRESSE is a Network of academics and professionals, practicing in Competition or Regulatory Authorities, Consultancies and Legal Practices, with an interest in Competition Policy and Sectoral Regulation. It was initiated by Prof. Y. Katsoulacos in 2005. The specific format and content of the CRESSE Summer School and Annual Conference has been influenced by the suggestions and ideas of a large number of people. Special mention should be made of Prof. Joe Harrington, Prof. M. Motta, Prof. Pierre Regibeau, Prof. Patrick Rey, Prof. Tom Ross and Prof. D. Ulph.

The objective of CRESSE is threefold:

- (i) To organize an annual Conference in which some of the latest research in the areas of Competition and Regulation is presented and discussed;
- (ii) To organize an annual Summer School and Lawyers' Week in which Visiting Faculty from a large number of European and US Universities, give the opportunity of high quality training to practitioners of competition policy and sectoral regulation that wish to be acquainted with the new economic literature and the recent legal developments;
- (iii) To disseminate research in the areas of competition policy and regulation and to contribute, through the organization of Special Policy Sessions and Round Tables, to public debates on specific policy issues.

Management:

The institution responsible for organising and administering CRESSE is the Athens University of Economics and Business (AUEB). Responsible for day-to-day management is Prof. Y. Katsoulacos (AUEB).

Conference and School Scientific Committee:

The CRESSE Scientific Committee consists of Prof. Joe Harrington (Business Economics and Public Policy Department, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania), Prof. Pierre Régibeau (Charles River Associates), Prof. Patrick Rey (Toulouse School of Economics (IDEI and GREMAQ)), Prof. Thomas Ross (Sauder School of Business, University of British Columbia), Prof. David Ulph (University of St Andrews) and Prof. Yannis Katsoulacos (Athens University of Economics and Business), who also acts as Chairman and Coordinator.

CRESSE Advisory Board:

The Board consists of individuals of outstanding reputation in competition law and policy. The Members of the Board are: Prof. Frederic Jenny (ESSEC Business School), Prof. William Kovacic (The George Washington University Law School) and Prof. Howard Shelanski (Georgetown Law).

CRESSE Associates:

International network of prominent scholars, policy makers and practitioners in Competition Policy and Regulation that are involved in the Summer School, the Lawyers' Course and / or the Conference as regular participants and provide a channel between CRESSE and the academic, policy and consultancy community.
