CALL FOR PAPERS

- 21st CRESSE Summer School on Competition Policy and Regulation & 8th Advanced Short Courses (for Chief Economists and other experienced professionals already trained in economics)
  Saturday, June 26 – Thursday, July 8, 2027 & Monday, July 5 – Wednesday, July 7,2027

The Summer School is designed for professionals working in the wider areas of Competition Policy and Network Industry Regulation. The School provides a comprehensive account of the most up to date developments in economic theory, empirical analysis, legislation and policy in the areas of Competition and Regulation. Participants of the Summer School join a vibrant community of motivated students from all over the world and a distinguished international faculty. The Contents are organised in 8 self-contained Modules of up to 12 hours duration each. Particular emphasis is placed on the presentation and discussion of Case Studies.

CRESSE offers each year a number of Advanced Short Courses in specific topics of Competition Policy (the topics may change from year to year). These consist of Masters' Level Lectures targeted at the more experienced and senior economists in Agencies and to those interested to pursue further studies and/or research in the areas of competition and regulation. The Courses can be attended on a stand-alone basis or by those participating in the Summer School.

❖ 13th CRESSE Lawyers' Course on "The Role of Economics in Competition Law and Practice"

Friday, July 2 – Monday, July 5, 2027

The Lawyers' Course is targeted at lawyers practicing in competition law as counsels, enforcers, or judges or in another field of law in which knowledge of economics is helpful. The course is taught by some of the foremost competition economists in the world. It covers both an introduction to microeconomics, game theory and industrial organization theory, as well as all the areas in the application of economics to competition policy. The Course is organized in 16 sessions of 2 academic hours each.

❖ 8th CRESSE – OECD Executive Programme (CALEP)

Friday, July 2 – Tuesday, July 6, 2027

Since 2019, CRESSE co-organises with the OECD Competition Division the Competition Agency Leaders Executive Programme (CALEP). CALEP is a yearly executive training taught by eminent competition professors, lawyers, economists and members of the OECD secretariat. The course is tailored to be an essential professional development opportunity for Leaders / Heads and emerging Leaders of competition agencies, Commissioners, Board Members and Senior Officials (Directors General and other high-level officers) of competition and other regulatory agencies throughout the world. A multidisciplinary approach is followed, with courses in competition economics and law and in management taught by leading experts with deep expertise and vast practical experience in competition law and its enforcement from academia, policy world and from the private and public sector. Participants are not required to have any prior knowledge of economics or quantitative techniques. Classes are delivered in-person and presentation materials are designed to help deliver key concepts and special emphasis is given in drawing on case and real-world examples in order to review and apply the principles and methods. The Course is organized in 20 sessions of 2 academic hours each.
